

HOW TO MAXIMIZE ATTORNEY BENEFITS AND OPPORTUNITIES IN THE GOVERNMENT
Sponsored by the APABA-DC Government Attorneys' Forum

Tuesday, February 9, 2010
6:30 p.m. - 8:30 p.m.

at Dickstein Shapiro LLP
1825 Eye Street N.W.
Washington DC 20006

Are you a government attorney who has ever said to yourself “I wish I knew that” or wondered “how did that person get a promotion, award, or detail?” Are you aware of the numerous benefits and opportunities available to government attorneys? Come to this seminar and learn about your options and how to maximize these benefits and opportunities. Panelists will discuss the benefits and opportunities within some of the different government agencies. Discussion topics will include financial benefits (e.g., pay scale, raises, awards, insurance), career advancement (e.g., details, promotions, continuing education/training), intangible benefits (e.g., travel, discounts, gym membership, personal satisfaction, affinity groups), and available resources for acquiring additional information.

The Panelists are:

*Rose Audette

Division of Management and Administrative Legal Services (MALS)
Office of the Solicitor, U.S. Department of Labor

*Anjuma K. Goswami

Division of Management and Administrative Legal Services (MALS)
Office of the Solicitor, U.S. Department of Labor

*Deanna Willis

Office of Attorney Recruitment and Management, U.S. Department of Justice

*Laura Shin

Office of the General Counsel , U.S. Department of Homeland Security

All new/experienced government attorneys or those interested in applying for a government position are welcome.

Please RSVP by February 6, 2010 to Eunice Chung or Anh Mai-Windle at gaf@apaba-dc.org

*Light refreshments will be provided.