

You're Invited

Asian Pacific American Bar Association of the Greater Washington DC Area, Inc.

The APABA-DC Practicing Attorney Resource Committee and Seyfarth Shaw LLP invite you to attend:

Networking and Mentoring: A Discussion About Making Connections Work for You

Networking: everyone tells you to do it. Mentors: everyone tells you to get one (or more). But how do networking and mentoring work? Where do you find mentors? Who do you network with? How do you turn seemingly random connections into long-term relationships? A distinguished panel of speakers will discuss their own experiences with networking and mentoring to provide guidance on using connections to your advantage.

Thursday, October 29, 2009

6:30 p.m. – 8:30 p.m.

Seyfarth Shaw LLP

975 F Street NW

Washington, D.C.

Metro: Metro Center or Gallery Place

Reception hosted by Seyfarth Shaw LLP.

RSVP to Angela Duong and Taron Murakami at par@apaba-dc.org by October 25, 2009.